Cincinnati, Oct. 7.—The Chicago Americans won the sixth game of the World's Series here today, making a great uphill fight and annexing it in the tenth inning rally by a score of 5 to 4. Kerr pitched the full game, despite being hit hard for his team mates were also in a hitting mood. Ruether, who won the opening game of the series for Cincinnati, was knocked out of the box in the 6th inning, with the score standing 4 to 3 in the Reds' favor, no outs and a man on second. A timely hit brought this man home and in the 10th a double right off the reel and a single shortly after enabled the American Leaguers to put across the winning run.

The line up:
 Chicago—J. Collins, rf; E. Collins, 2b; Weaver, 3b; Jackson, lf; Felsch, cf; Gandil, 1b; Risberg, ss; Schalk, c; Kerr, p.

Cincinnati—Rath, 2b; Daubert, 1b; Groh, 3b; Rousch, cf; Duncan, lf; Kopf, ss; Neale, rf; Rariden, c; Ruether, p. Umpires—Evans behind the plate; Quigley at first; Nallin at second base; Rigger at third base.

At 1:35 the Reds took the field for official practice. At 1:46 the Sox relieved them at practice and the band once more played "Please Go Away and Let Me Sleep." Kerr and Ruether were warming up at this time. The Umpires came on the field at 1:55 p. m. The same ground rules prevailed today that prevailed the first two games of the series.

Batteries for today's game are Kerr and Schalk for Chicago; Ruether and Rariden for Cincinnati.

First Inning
 J. Collins opened hostilities by popping a high fly in back of second base that Rath captured. Rousch came in fast and got Eddie Collins' low fly. Weaver nailed the first ball and drove it to left, but it hit a few feet foul. Weaver singled through Kopf into center field. The Cincinnati shortstop could not quite get it. Jackson sent an easy pop up to Groh. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second Inning
 Sox—Felsch sent a long fly almost to the bleachers but Neale got under and captured it. Gandil put a Texas leaguer out toward right but it fell a few inches foul. Kopf took Gandil's bounce and tossed to Daubert for the put out. Risberg hoisted a high one to Neale. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning
 Sox—Schalk up. Ruether failed to get the ball over the plate and walked. Schalk, Kerr sacrificed, Groh to Rath. Schalk going to second. It was a well laid bait. J. Collins hoisted a high fly to Rousch in short left center. Duncan made a great running catch and captured E. Collins' fly in left center. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning
 Sox—Duncan took Weaver's line drive that went almost to the left field crowd. Rariden went back almost to the grand stand and nailed Jackson's high foul. Felsch singled through the pitcher's box, the ball rolling to center field. Kopf threw out Gandil, stopping in time to get his grounder after starting for second to cover the bag as Felsch went down. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning
 Sox—Risberg walked. Ruether failing to put the ball over the plate. Schalk also walked. Kerr up. Ruether appeared to be becoming unsteady. Kerr singled, advancing both runners a base. Risberg taking third and Schalk second. Risberg overran third but Groh failed to put Kopf's throw on him. J. Collins flied to Rousch and the latter's throw was so fast that Risberg who had started for home turned back and held third. E. Collins up. Ring began warming up for Cincinnati on the side lines. E. Collins flied to Rousch and Risberg scored. Schalk failed to get to third on the play and Kerr ran down to second. Groh seeing the predicament ran over and touched Kerr out. Rousch getting an assist on the play. One run, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning
 Sox—Weaver popped up a Texas leaguer that went for a double when Kopf and Duncan played an Alphonse and Gaston act. Jackson singled into center field, and Weaver crossed the plate. Felsch doubled to the center field crowd, and Jackson scored. This was enough for Ruether and Ring relieved him on the pitching mound. Ring was very slow and deliberate. Gandil hoisted to Daubert, who got the ball in back of first base. Felsch holding second. Risberg up. Kopf took Risberg's grounder and threw him out. Felsch taking third. Schalk singled between short and third, scoring Felsch and tying the score. Schalk stole second. Groh grabbed Kerr's grounder and retired the side by throwing him out at first. Groh made a great stop and a beautiful throw. Three runs, four hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning
 Sox—Liebold batted for J. Collins, and will play right field for Chicago. Liebold up. Kopf came over fast and took Liebold's grounder, throwing him out at first. E. Collins hoisted a high one that Rousch got under and caught. Weaver batted left handed and Rath took his grounder and threw him out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning
 Sox—Jackson up. The outfielders played deep for Jackson. Jackson walked. Ring temporarily lost control and passed Jackson, the first man up in this inning. Felsch sent a high fly to Neale, Jackson holding first. Ring also walked Gandil and appeared very unsteady. Jackson on second. Risberg up. Rousch came in fast and got Risberg's line drive and then ran to second, tossed the ball to Rath, retiring Jackson for a double play. It was a wonderful catch and looked safe; so much so that Jackson had rounded third. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning
 Chicago—Schalk fanned. The final strike being called on him. Kerr drove to Ring, who tossed to Daubert, getting him. Liebold walked. Ring was having trouble finding the plate. Liebold stole second, beating the throw easily after getting a big lead. E. Collins lifted a high fly to Rousch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Tenth Inning
 Sox—Weaver opened the 10th with a double to left field that Duncan was not quite able to reach. Jackson's first sacrifice attempt went foul. Jackson singled. Weaver going to third. Jackson laid down a bunt and beat it out. Felsch struck out, taking a swing at the final one. Gandil singled to center scoring Weaver and putting Jackson on second. Risberg lined to Kopf who threw to Rath at second, doubling Jackson. One run, three hits, no errors.

Eleventh Inning
 Reds—Collins threw out Rousch at first. Duncan fouled out to Schalk behind the plate. E. Collins threw out Kopf at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Twelfth Inning
 Seven Cincinnati business men today bet $60,000 on the Reds winning today.

G. O. P. IN LEAGUE WITH THE SALOONS

Deal With Illegal Sellers of Booze Evident From Development In Raids In Louisville

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7.—That the Republican Machine in Louisville is in league with illegal sellers of liquor is evident from the developments in the trial of those accused of selling whiskey before a U. S. Commissioner.

Louisville policemen "have no instructions" to arrest violators of the liquor laws, even when they see with their own eyes liquor sold to soldiers in uniforms, was the statement made by Patrolman J. B. Probst in the trial of Fred Ziegler, on the charge of selling liquor to a soldier in uniform, October 2nd.

Cross-examined by Jack Richardson, attorney for Ziegler after he had testified for the government, Probst was asked:

"And you say you saw the defendant sell the liquor to this soldier in uniform?"

Probst answered in the affirmative. "Then why didn't you arrest him yourself?" Mr. Richardson asked.

"Because I have no instructions on that matter," was asked.

Nat Cureton, Assistant County Attorney, under J. Mat Chilton, appeared for Ziegler and arranged bond for him.

Chilton and Cureton are members of the Hart-Morrow-Ballard Republican Machine and prominent in it. That the Republicans have made a deal for the support of the former saloon keepers is evident from their laxity in handling these cases, and they have been assessed for campaign purposes from one to three hundred dollars each, this collection being based upon the amount of whiskey sold.

VOTING RULES BLOCK THE BIG CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 7.—Disagreement over the rules proposed for governing the industrial conference called by President Wilson resulted in the conference adjourning suddenly today after Secretary of the Interior Lane was chosen permanent chairman. The disagreement came after John Spargo, of New York, a delegate representing the public, attacked a rule providing all conclusions and decisions must be given by a unanimous vote, representing capital, labor and the public, while decisions of each individual group may be by majority of the members of that group.

Spargo asserted the conference might as well adjourn if the group rule is adhered to as the public group is not composed of delegates representing a homogeneous interest, like labor, but contained persons of diverse activities. He objected particularly because there is no provision for a minority expression. The conference finally adjourned until afternoon to allow each group to consider the rules separated.

Profiteering In Blue Grass?
 Dealers in bluegrass seed are profiteering against farmers and discriminating against producers in Central Kentucky, according to J. D. Gay of Pine Grove. Farmers are now being paid $1.60 a bushel for their seed, which is being sold after cleaning by dealers for $3.75 says the Lexington Herald. It is reported that seed cleaners of Kentucky have bought an inferior crop of seed in Missouri for $1.85 and paid the freight to Lexington, and that they bought 4,000 bushels of Ohio seed at $1.55, also paying the freight. Farmers in this section are paid only $1.60 and must themselves pay the freight.

The action of the dealers attributed by Mr. Gay to the decision of large holders of bluegrass seed to pool their crops and demand $2 a bushel. At a mass meeting of farmers held about the first of July it was agreed to pool, and a few large holders have kept the agreement. The dealers now want to retaliate, according to Mr. Gay, and are buying inferior seed from small dealers and outside the state in an effort to cause large Central Kentucky holders to lower their prices.

ROUSING SPEECH BY YOUNG DEMOCRAT

J. J. McBrayer, of Anderson County, Takes Judge Daugherty's Place Here Monday

Although Judge Frank Daugherty, democratic nominee for Attorney General was ill and unable to come to Richmond and speak at the court house Monday afternoon, his place was taken by a very able substitute. J. J. McBrayer, of Anderson county, a young democrat who is known to most politicians, came over and gave the big crowd of voters in the county court room, a rousing democratic speech that held every man until he had finished. Young McBrayer is a member of a prominent family in Anderson county, and he knows his democracy also. He told his hearers some things about the efforts of the republican candidates to deceive the voters which open their eyes, and made them go home thinking.

Judge W. R. Shackelford also made a rousing democratic address. Former Representative H. C. Rice and Tom Collins, candidate for representative, also spoke and all were listened to with interest and enthusiasm by the crowd. County Campaign Chairman J. P. Chenault, presided and introduced the speakers.

Democrats of Madison county seemed to be well pleased with the way Gov. Black is handling Ed Morrow, and the latter's many pleas and promises. In his speech at Lebanon the other day, Governor Black said if Morrow will have the courage to name some of the useless offices created by the democrats, or even if he will name only one of these useless offices, his charge will carry more weight with the people.

He said insofar as any corruption was concerned, he would like for the republican nominee to name one official who should be ousted from office.

"If he will do so," Gov. Black said, "I will assure him and the people that that official's affairs will be promptly investigated and if Mr. Morrow's charges are proven true steps will be taken to relieve him of the office."

Four Answered Call At Meeting Monday Night

Dr. Violette continues to preach splendid sermons at the Christian church. His audiences are greatly benefited and inspired by the message that he brings. The singing of the old-time hymns of the church, is one of the happy features of the meeting. Monday evening four answered the invitation to unite with the church. At the close of the service nine were baptized upon the confession of their faith.

"The Guide Post at the Cross Roads" is the subject for tonight, and the Bible lesson to be read is the seventh chapter of the gospel of Matthew.

TO INVESTIGATE ANY PROFITEERING

Is Their Duty, Judge Shackelford Tells Members of Grand Jury When Court Opens

Judge Shackelford emphasized investigation of profiteering in his charge of the grand jury at the opening of the October term of the Madison circuit court here Tuesday morning. Another feature of the Judge's charge was mention of the crime of illicit manufacture of liquor. Reports have been current for some little time that there has been "moonshining" in certain sections of the county. The Judge told of these reports and urged the grand jury to investigate them carefully. He said that the practice of bootlegging whiskey has been practically abolished in Madison, and moonshining will not be tolerated either. A strong charge was given to the grand jury on the crime of carrying concealed deadly weapons, which Judge Shackelford believes is one of the most fruitful sources of crime in the county. He always gives the grand jury at each court a thorough instruction on this evil.

The members of the grand jury are Elvada Tudor, foreman, D. Willis Kennedy, D. C. Anderson, Jephtha Jett, B. K. Duncan, James A. Moores, J. N. Wells, J. B. Ellison, Jr., Alex Turner, R. R. Wells, J. S. Sewell and Enos Lanter. Not a man asked to be excused from service, after the Judge had given prospective jurors a strong hint about jury slackers.

The court room was crowded when court convened. Former Judge J. M. Benton, of Winchester, was among the visiting attorneys.

"DADDY LONG LEGS"

Quaint Humor Injected into Screen Version of Famous Story and Play by Director Marshall Neilan

One of the funniest of all the humorous things with which Mary Pickford's new and best feature, "Daddy Long Legs" which will be seen at the local theatres, is loaded in a series of scenes in which Mary, as Judy Abbott, takes too much hard cider.

The funny little "drunk" is not indulged in by Judy Abbott, the orphan child Miss Pickford plays, with malice aforethought. It happens that she and a funny little orphan with a very freckled face have just lead a "prune strike" in which they have sought to obtain better food for the children of the asylum, who are fed on thin soup and prunes.

The tyrannical head matron has on the battle, being a large woman able to dominate the cowering little waifs who are charges of the institution, and to punish Judy, and the little boy who aided her in encouraging the children to strike, the matron put them out in the yard with nothing to eat. A thief who has been stealing hides over the fence a jug of hard cider, and some sandwiches.

Judy and the boy have praying for food. They think this dropped from Heaven, and proceed to eat and drink without inquiring into the nature of the donation. So it happens that in the most innocent way both children become "happy". Miss Pickford's portrayal of the surprised Judy, who punishes her enemies, gives jam to all the children and defies the ogre of a matron is wonderfully done.

It is only one of the masterful "bits" she does in this picture which carries Judy, the orphan from her birth to her marriage to a rich man who sends her to college. Coming Thursday and Friday, Oct. 9th-10th.

No Cost To The People

Neither the Insurance Rating Bureau at Frankfort nor the State Fire Marshal's office costs the people of Kentucky a penny, according to a statement given out at Democratic headquarters in Louisville. The salaries and expenses of both offices are paid from fees collected from the insurance companies and even if the contention of the Republicans that the policy holders in the end pay this expense thru their premiums is admitted, the expense would be so small as not to amount to 2 cents on the policy.

The Fire Marshal's office is one of the most useful to the citizens of any in the state. The reduction in the number of fires by rigid inspection and insistence on compliance with the law has resulted in the saving of millions of dollars in property and many human lives. Besides as a result of inspections the insurance on property has been reduced and the state itself has saved in insurance thousands of dollars. Fire prevention has been taught through bulletins. The office has issued and served in the past four years more than 10,000 orders to owners of property relating to the elimination of fire hazard.

State Inspector and Examiner Nat B. Sewell, in his report on the Fire Marshal's office, said: "I have not investigated any other department of the state in which I found such a marked decrease in expenses. Expense accounts for the year 1917 show most commendable care and economy and reflect credit upon the management of the department."

And yet, State Fire Marshal Tom Pannell and his deputies have come in for a large share of Republican abuse. This has been in line with the general policy of the Republican candidates to attack everybody and everything that have any connection with Democratic administration in Kentucky. The people who have saved more than two and a quarter million of dollars in fire insurance premiums in Kentucky under Democratic administration will not be fooled by the clamor

Encouraging Bolshevism

Everything that falsely encourages unrest also encourages bolshevism.

Misunderstanding of American industrial organization, and of its benefits to mankind, leads to unrest, dissatisfaction, and radicalism.

For example, the Federal Trade Commission tells the public that the large packers had an agreed price for lard substitute (made of cotton-seed oil)

It reproduces letters taken from the files of one of the packers, showing that such agreed price existed.

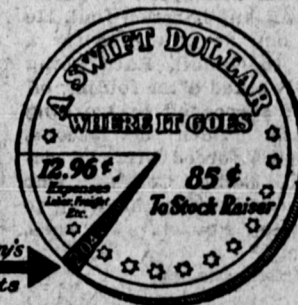

But it failed to mention that the agreed price was determined at the request of and in co-operation with the Food Administration!

Even the Department of Justice, in its unjust attempt to create prejudice against the packers, has made public these same letters, with no explanation.

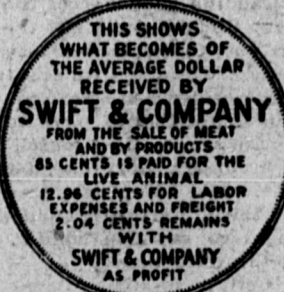

How long must this kind of misrepresentation continue? In so far as it is believed, it not only breeds discontent, but results in injustice to our industry.

McCoun, the news being heard by the others present with happy expression of good wishes to the bride-elect and congratulations for Captain McCoun. It was told in a pretty way, a little boy, Horace Davis, Jr., bringing into the room a mysterious package that proved to be a white kitten imprisoned in a box. The house was decorated with yellow daisies, golden rod and marigolds, plumosa was garland on the walls and mantels.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Albert Shouse, Mrs. Horace Davis and Miss Ella Shropshire. After the game of bridge the supper was served.

Prices have, of course, been much lower than were anticipated under any conditions a month or so ago, and the big feeders have calculated in thousands of dollars what they have lost by the crop in the market.

SEVEN STEERS LOST BY FALL FROM CAR

Armer Hisle was in Cincinnati last week to investigate the loss of seven steers which were in a shipment he sent to the Union Stock Yards. There were 27 in the car when he started them to Cincinnati at the depot here. Somewhere between Winchester and Paris the door to the car was either broken open or came open by accident. Seven of the steers fell out, and were crippled or killed. Mr. Hisle feels that the railway company is responsible for the loss of his cattle.

Lower Rate On Ice

The State Railroad Commission has reduced the rate on ice shipments from Covington to Harlan from 60 cents to 12 cents per 100 pounds as the result of a number of complaints. Heretofore little ice was shipped into Harlan because there had always been enough natural ice to supply the demand. The mild winter last year, however, has necessitated the shipments.
